

OTTAWA (CP)—The Journal says reorganization of the CBC will come in six weeks, important change being retirement of Dr. Thomson.

It says: "It is expected that either Dr. Augustin Frigon, assistant general manager, or Ernest Bushnell, director of programs, Toronto, might be named general manager."

"If neither of these men is chosen, there is a chance the post may go to Reginald Brophy of the Canadian Marconi Co., Montreal."

"There is a possibility that Dr. Thomson might be appointed chairman of the board of governors, as there is a report that Rene Morin, the present chairman, is to resign."

Allies Smash Italian Railways Day and Night

By NOLAN NORGAAARD.
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, NORTH AFRICA (AP)—Four-engine bombers struck at Orte, railway centre 40 miles north of Rome, for the first time, and two-engine bombers delivered heavy new blows at vital rail targets at Torre Annunziata on the Bay of Naples Sunday in the methodical daily destruction of the Italian communications system.

Sunday night R.A.F. and U.S. A.F. Wellingtons again smashed Torre Annunziata railway yards which also received a heavy pounding Sunday by U.S. medium bombers.

At the same time light and medium bombers, dive-bombers and fighters ranged far and wide over the toe of Italy, laying waste the enemy's gun positions and rail and road links and encountering only slight opposition in the area already reported nearly deserted.

A British cruiser and destroyer bombarded an enemy battery near Cape Pellarò on the southern Calabrian coast Saturday.

Italians Admit Heavy Losses

(Rome reported in its daily communiqué, recorded by the Associated Press, that Orte, the vicinity of Naples, Salerno and Catanzaro had been raided, and that considerable damage had been caused. Seven Allied aircraft were claimed shot down.

(Italian and German air formations attacked Allied naval units in the port of Augusta, the communiqué asserted, claiming one oil tanker of 8,000 tons was seen to explode and another of equal tonnage set afire. An attack on an Allied convoy in the western Mediterranean by German bombers was said to have damaged a battleship and cruiser.)

Twenty enemy planes were destroyed in the day and night operations, 17 of them shot down by bombers and a fighter escort in the raids on Orte and Torre Annunziata. Three Allied planes are missing, said an Allied headquarters communiqué.

British and U.S. medium bombers and fighters participated in the concerted attacks on the Italian toe, hitting gun positions near Reggio Calabria and San Giovanni on the eastern shore of Messina Straits, railway junctions at Cosenza and freight yards at La Mezia. Dive-bombers also scored a direct hit on a temporary bridge over the Angitola River.

2 British Generals, Vancouver Flier Killed in Crash

NEW DELHI (CP)—Two Canadians were among the 10 persons killed in the crash of an R.A.F. transport plane at Allahabad last Friday. It was disclosed today. The crash also took the lives of a British major general and a British brigadier.

The Canadians were Sqdn. Ldr. R. C. Cartwright, 33, of Vancouver, for the last year censorship adviser to the R.A.F. India command, and Flt. Sgt. William Clayton Walsh of Leonard, Ont.

Maj.-Gen. Thomas George Gordon Heywood, 56, and Brig. Hugh Poynton Radley, 51, both British veterans of the last war, were among those killed, as was also Robert Rand, 25, director of the Calcutta branch of the United States Office of War Information. Rand was from Brookline, Mass.

Sqdn. Ldr. Cartwright was a son of Dr. and Mrs. Conway Cartwright, the former, ship's quarantine officer for Vancouver. He was formerly private secretary to the then Premier Pattullo, and spent a number of years in London, where he was associated with the BBC.

Sqdn. Ldr. Cartwright, whose grandfather was Sir Richard Cartwright, a member of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's cabinet, was a graduate of the U.B.C. and McGill University.

His sister, the former Peggy Cartwright, Vancouver and New York singer, is the wife of radio star Phil Baker.

Canada's Army Ready for Any Front, Says McNaughton

By DOUGLAS AMARON.
SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (CP)—Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, describing Canadian troops in Britain as a "large, strategic reserve," declared today they are ready for use "in whole or in part" as the high command desires, "and can fit into any scheme right from the drop of the hat."

The commander of the Canadian army overseas met Canadian war correspondents at army headquarters and talked of his recent visit to north Africa and Sicily, from which he returned Saturday.

"We are ready," Gen. McNaughton said. "The great thing that has come from the Sicilian campaign is that it has been a check and audit on our training organization."

PROUD OF WORK

"The result of observations by senior commanders is that we have every right to take satisfaction in what has been done. We are assured by independent judges that our basic training has been right. The same thing applied to our organization."

Sicily had shown that Canadians can put men in with other Allied formations if need be without trouble, he said, describing this as "a pretty satisfactory state of affairs."

"The policy of employment of the Canadians will have been settled in Quebec in principle and details probably are being worked out now," he said. "The Canadian army is ready to implement those principles in whole or in part."

Asked about the future movement of Canadians, he said: "Where we go from here is what the enemy wants to know—there is where we have to ask the people of Canada to be patient."

Escape of Ciano Enrages Italians

AT THE SWISS-ITALIAN FRONTIER (AP)—The reported flight of Count Galeazzo Ciano, former Italian foreign minister and son-in-law of Benito Mussolini, angered today the Italian people, who considered him one of the most responsible for the Fascist regime.

A Chiasso dispatch to the Swiss Telegraphic agency said Italians had assumed that Ciano and his family were heavily guarded and therefore were surprised to learn he had been able to evade surveillance.

The Swiss Telegraphic Agency dispatch estimated the fortune Ciano built under Fascism at many millions of dollars.

The Italian people, meanwhile, awaited official announcement of the flight.

The Milan newspaper, Corriere della Sera, which gave details of Ciano's escape, expressed a belief that he and his family had not yet reached the safety of a foreign country, although unconfirmed reports said they were either in Germany or Spain.

Italy's recently-appointed minister to Switzerland, Massimo Maglistrati, who arrived in Bern shortly before the fall of Fascism, is a brother-in-law of Ciano.

RECORD PACIFIC AIR RAID—Nearly 100 Liberators, Flying Fortresses and Mitchells, escorted by Lightning fighters, staged the south Pacific's heaviest Allied air raid when they plastered Jap-held Hansa Bay, northwest of Salamaua, with 180 tons of bombs. In the attack on the area, indicated by arrow, two Jap freighters and 64 barges were destroyed or damaged.

LONDON (CP)—Premier Stalin announced the capture of Taganrog, southern anchor of the 1,500-mile Russian front, today in a special order of the day. Capture of the southern flank of the Russian front indicated the Nazis' entire southern front positions were crumbling.

Stalin, whose order of the day was broadcast by the Moscow radio and recorded by the Associated Press, said the new victory was achieved as a result of a bold manoeuvre by Soviet cavalry and mechanized formations which broke through to the rear of the enemy troops.

With the fall of this important Sea of Azov port to the onrushing Red Army, the capture of Stalino, Hitler's southern front headquarters, 70 miles to the northwest, may follow soon.

Taganrog, said the Germans in their daily communiqué, was "evacuated according to plan" after being "completely destroyed." It was another of the so-called "strategic withdrawals" which German propagandists have been at pains to color as Nazi triumphs.

Capture of Railway Ousted Germans

The fall of Taganrog came as a surprise, since there had been no reports of heavy fighting in that region recently from either Moscow or Berlin, but the position of the city had been obviously imperilled since the Russians captured the railway station of Donetsk-Amvrosievka just a week ago, cutting Taganrog's only rail line to the north and west. Donetsk-Amvrosievka is 40 miles north of Taganrog.

Evacuation of Taganrog makes it clear that the whole right flank of the German army is compromised and indicates that a general pulling back, started with the Soviet offensive in the Donets basin a few days ago, has been stepped up.

Taganrog had been heavily fortified by the Germans.

There was no immediate indication whether the Germans would attempt to stand a few miles west of Taganrog on the west bank of the Mius River, or withdraw some 60 miles farther to the west to Mariupol.

Taganrog, a city with a normal population of 70,000, had been in German hands since the early summer of 1942.

The Nazi forces first swept through it in early November, 1941, but were driven back. The Russians recaptured Rostov last Feb. 14.

Russian Advances Menace 800,000 Nazis

The Soviet communiqué today indicated fast-moving Soviet columns south and west of Khar'kov are threatening 800,000 Nazi troops in the Donets basin salient with possible encirclement.

Meanwhile, Russian troops advanced three to seven and a half miles to recapture 50 villages, including the railroad junction of Liubotin, 25 miles west of Khar'kov on the Kursk-Kiev line, the war bulletin announced.

The push seemed to be aimed at by-passing the big Nazi base at Poltava, 85 miles to the south and west of Khar'kov, on the north. At the same time another Soviet spearhead farther south was pointing in the direction of Krasnodar, in a drive apparently aimed at pinching off the base just as the Nazi bastion at Orel was cut off earlier this summer.

Action on the Khar'kov and Voroshilovgrad fronts, thus seemed to be rapidly blending into one gigantic drive by which the Russians hoped to reach the sweeping eastward bend of the Dnieper River somewhere in the vicinity of Dnepropetrovsk, thus imperilling the whole Nazi position in the Donets basin. Russian airmen ranging far over German-held territory to bomb and strafe troop concentrations and supply depots reported the Germans were destroying their own military installations in evident preparation for further withdrawals toward the west.

The Russian communiqué indicated the southern end of the long eastern battle line was at present the focal point of the summer offensive, but the columns which were stalled temporarily in the advance on the important Nazi base at Bryansk, 200 miles southwest of Moscow, by unfavorable terrain and heavy German demolitions were again on the move.

The war bulletin announced the Red Army had advanced nine miles and had captured 40 villages in the sector south of Bryansk. The spearhead reaching west in the new battlefront opened last week at Sevsk, 100 miles south of Bryansk, advanced to capture 16 villages, the communiqué said.

Dr. Thomson May Quit CBC

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadian Broadcasting Corporation governors, in session next month, are expected to receive and discuss the resignation of Dr. J. S. Thomson as general manager, it was understood today.

CBC officials said they could give no confirmation of the report that Dr. Thomson would present his resignation.

Rene Morin, chairman of CBC board of governors, said at Montreal he had no definite information on the matter, and that in any event it would have to be dealt with by the governors as a group.

Dr. Thomson, who took office on Nov. 2, 1942, was granted leave of absence for one year by the board of governors of the University of Saskatchewan, of which he is president. He became CBC general manager as successor to Maj. W. F. Gladstone Murray.

Informed sources said the question would be whether Dr. Thomson's resignation would be merely a "technical one" handed in be-

Nazi Martial Law Clamped on Danes

By JOHN H. COLBURN.
STOCKHOLM (AP)—Big fires blazed fiercely today among the scuttled hulks of Denmark's naval vessels in Copenhagen harbor, and offshore Nazi patrol boats and planes shot at Danes fleeing from a new German military dictatorship clamped on the rebellious kingdom.

Refugees streaming into Sweden said scores of persons drowned as Nazi gunners sank many small motorboats, sailboats and fishing smacks in the Oeresund, the narrow stretch of water between Denmark and Sweden.

The Germans ignored the usual Copenhagen blackout Sunday night. Street lights blazed brightly as tanks and armored cars toured the city enforcing the martial law decreed by the German military commander who had interned the aged King Christian X in his castle and set up Nazi rule to replace that of the resigned Danish government.

Fires at Harbor

Seen From Sweden

The fires in the harbor area could be seen from the Swedish coast. A series of explosions set them off at dawn Sunday as Danish naval forces sent the greater part of their small navy to the bottom.

One of the latest reports reaching Sweden said members of the cabinet, including Prime Minister Eric Seavenius, were in internment with King Christian at Sorgenfri Castle.

The cabinet conferred with the king until the early hours Sunday before Gen. Hermann von Hanneken, German commander in Denmark, issued his proclamation at 4:10 a.m. announcing Nazi martial law.

The 73-year-old king threatened to abdicate if the cabinet accepted a drastic ultimatum submitted Saturday by German Minister Werner Best. The cabinet's flat rejection of the demands signaled the end of Danish collaboration and the smashing of the German effort to establish Denmark as a showcase model for other occupied countries.

The Danish people received little information of the swift movement of events in their country, as no newspapers had been published for two days.

The Danish radio later announced Von Hanneken had taken over all court and civil functions. The radio broadcast a warning that courts-martial would be established to impose the death penalty and other severe sentences for violators of martial law.

Nazified Laws

In Store for Danes

Danish laws will be revised along Nazi lines, in addition to "a new arrangement of the public life of Denmark," the Von Hanneken announcement said. It added that loyal civil servants would be retained under German control.

(The Nazi-controlled Kalundborg radio in Denmark, meanwhile, was recorded by U.S. government monitors as asserting: "It can now be stated that absolute quiet reigns all over the country." The broadcast added that the "state administration and all enterprises, including those hitherto on strike, now are working.")

The light coastal defence ship Niels Iuel was one of the vessels that tried to escape, but it was sunk by a German torpedo plane in Ise Fjord. The 30-year-old warship was commanded by Capt. Carl Wasterman, vice-chairman of the Danish House of Commons, and there were reports here that a number of prominent persons were among the 369 persons aboard who were reported saved and landed at Hel-singer.

Three more Danish naval ships carrying a total of about 75 persons, reached Sweden this morning. A torpedo boat had arrived at Landskrona Sunday night. There were then 10 Danish warships docked in Sweden.

Battled Germans During Scuttling

Marine and royal guard forces fought a brief but spirited battle with German troops who tried to invade the royal barracks and naval yard in Copenhagen as the scuttling was in progress, Danes who escaped to Sweden reported.

Forty-five vessels of various types, including two new destroyers and nine submarines, were sunk, ammunition dumps blown up, and harbor fortifications wrecked.

Nine naval ships, two of them small destroyers, swept out of the harbor and reached safety in Sweden.

Nazi troops surrounded the royal palace at Amalienborg, but the royal guard blocked all entrances and exchanged a barrage of gunfire with the Germans. Resistance ceased only when King Christian gave the order.

(The London Daily Telegraph reported from Stockholm this morning that King Christian was expected to abdicate. This report said diplomatic circles in the Swedish capital were discussing formation of a free Danish government in London.)

The military dictatorship was imposed as the climax of a rapid series of sabotage acts in the past two weeks throughout the reluctant German vassal state overrun by Hitler's forces in 1940.

"Recent disturbances have shown Danish authorities are no longer in position to maintain law and order," said the martial law decree. "Disturbances created by enemy agents are directly pointed at German armed forces."

Travelers reaching Sweden said the Danish cabinet promptly resigned when the demands were presented. All were said to have been arrested, although there appeared a possibility some may have been included among a group of civilians brought to Sweden by the fleeing naval vessels.

All the ships that reached Sweden docked at Landskrona, except for one torpedo boat which raced into Malmö to elude the guns of a German submarine and an airplane.

Admiral Vedel, commander of the Danish navy, was reported, without confirmation, to have reached Malmö.

Capt. Godfrey Goes to Washington

Place on Pacific Command of Commodore Beech, who is leaving this week to go overseas, is being taken by Rear-Admiral Victor Brodeur, who until two years ago was in command at Esquimaux when he was promoted to be naval member of the Canadian Joint Staff at Washington, D.C. Commodore Beech's family has now returned to Victoria.

In naval circles here today it was pointed out that bringing a rear-admiral to the Pacific Coast indicates the Canadian navy is attaching increased importance to this area. As the operations in the North Pacific will be under U.S. Navy control, Brodeur's experiences and contacts in Washington are seen as of use now in Pacific Command.

Capt. Valentine S. Godfrey, Victoria boy who started his career in the Canadian Navy here at the end of the last war, will take Brodeur's place on the joint staff in Washington. His wife is a Victoria girl, the former Margaret Hardie, who will now assume the responsibilities as an official Washington hostess.

U.S. Navy Launches New Hornet

NEWPORT NEWS, Va. (AP)—A great name in the history of the United States navy was reborn today with the launching of the aircraft carrier hornet amid cheers of spectators who a moment later heard Secretary of the Navy Knox hint broadly at plans for large-scale aerial blows against Tokyo.

Last year's bombing of the rising sun capital was "only a small sample of far bigger raids to come," Knox asserted in a speech a moment after his wife had sent a bottle of champagne foaming over the bow of the ship which replaces the flat-top of the same name sunk last year in the Santa Cruz Islands.

2 Women Ejected From Train, Jailed

CALGARY (CP)—Two Winnipeg women, Mrs. Marjorie Whittington and Mrs. Jeannette Pacey, both 21, today are serving five-day jail sentences here in lieu of a five-dollar fine assessed in Morley police court on charges of vagrancy.

Arrested by R.C.M.P. at Morley, 40 miles west of here, the women said they had been ejected from a freight train when attempting to make their way to Vancouver to look for work in the shipyards.

One of the women had no registration card and the other held a temporary card which had expired.

Japs Counterattack In Attempt to Save Salamaua Position

By DEAN SCHEDLER

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC (AP)—Fierce Japanese counterattacks along the entire front at Salamaua, New Guinea, have forced Allied troops to yield ground at some points, while in the Solomons U.S. infantrymen have landed unopposed on Arundel Island, just west of New Georgia, and within artillery range of Japanese-dominated Kolombangara.

The headquarters communique said sharp ground fighting was going on along the entire Salamaua front, "with the enemy launching frequent counterattacks to preserve his hard-pressed positions."

Australian and U.S. troops, powerfully supported by aircraft, slowly but methodically, have been closing in on the Salamaua airdrome during the last few weeks. The airdrome is about two miles from the isthmus on which the town of Salamaua is located.

Supporting the Allied ground forces, attack planes made low-level sweeps against enemy barge hideouts and waterfront installations at Salamaua.

DESTROY BARGES, JETTIES

Near Lae, 10 miles east of Salamaua, heavy bombers dropped 29 tons of bombs, destroying three jetties and 20 barges at Voco Point.

The landing on Arundel Island took place last Friday. The island, on which Japanese troops were stationed until recently, is only three miles south of Kolombangara Island, and provides positions from which field artillery can shell the Vila airdrome.

A strong force of medium bombers last Saturday delivered a second heavy attack within a week against Hansa Bay, midway between Wewak and Madang on the northeast coast of New Guinea. A 2,000-ton ship, a patrol boat and 31 barges and jetties were destroyed. Roaring fires were started in fuel and ammunition dumps on the waterfront.

Allied reconnaissance planes attacked and damaged a 7,500-ton freighter-transport at Kaveng, New Ireland, while other reconnaissance craft hit a small merchantman in the Shortland Island area, and destroyed six barges on the west coast of Long Island in Vitiaz Strait.

Medium aircraft bombed Dili, Timor, at night, leaving a spreading fire, which was visible 45 miles away.

300 Attend Memorial Service for Lin Sen

Nearly 300 men and women, members of the Victoria Chinese community and representatives of various consular services and of the provincial government attended a memorial service at the Chinese Benevolent Association office, Sunday, for Lin Sen, president of the Republic of China, who died Aug. 1, at the age of 81.

Lin Sen, who became president in 1932, was born in Fochow, Fukien, in 1862, and received his early education in the United States. He lived in California for many years.

Attending the Victoria memorial service were: Li Chao, Chinese vice-consul from Vancouver, and Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Mines, representing the provincial government.

Cianos Reported Now in Germany

LONDON (CP)—The German underground radio station, Atlantik, said today in a broadcast heard in London that Count Galeazzo Ciano, former Italian foreign minister and son-in-law of Benito Mussolini, had reached Munich after fleeing from Rome.

The German radio reported Sunday that Ciano, his wife and children, had eluded the police guard around his home and escaped.

Atlantik's broadcast, heard by the London Daily Express and Daily Telegraph, said Ciano had reached Innsbruck and was taken to Munich by automobile.

The Berlin radio Sunday said the countess had made it a practice to leave the mansion daily for brief walks with her children and also had received friends.

Saturday morning she and the children went for a walk. At 11 a.m. it was discovered Ciano also had disappeared, though the house was guarded by eight detectives day and night.

"According to the Corriere della Sera," said the Berlin broadcast, it appears Count Ciano left the house in a clever disguise so that the police patrol failed to notice his departure."

As a former leader of Fascist Italy Ciano is presumably among the Axis war leaders to whom neutral countries have been warned not to give sanctuary.

Number of Schools Have No Teachers

Canadian Press
The bell won't ring in numbers of Canadian country schools this fall. For the most part, of course, youngsters will troop back to their desks as usual, but in some sections, in at least six provinces, the vacation-time padlock will stay on the door. The reason: A shortage of teachers.

A survey by the Canadian Press shows Alberta apparently the hardest-hit, with Nova Scotia probably next in line. Preliminary reports from Alberta indicated a shortage of 800 teachers—the normal number is 6,200—but the shortage will be halved by using the services of 400 Normal School students who will be available for teaching duties Nov. 1.

Apart from Alberta and Nova Scotia, shortages of varying degree are anticipated in British Columbia, Quebec, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick. Enlistments in the services and employment of teachers in higher-paying war jobs are given as reasons for the dearth of instructors.

DISTRICTS UNITING

The situation is being met in various ways—by combining school districts, employing married women and granting permission to teach to students not qualified under peacetime conditions.

Schools in most of the provinces are scheduled to open Sept. 7, though many school boards have announced the opening will be postponed two weeks or more to permit students to help the farmers get in the crop. In Alberta, for instance, schools generally will not open until Oct. 11, and some not until Nov. 1.

Ontario is the only province to say definitely there is no lack of teachers. Dr. G. F. Rogers, Deputy Minister of Education, says the requisite number will be obtained by employing married women and retaining those due to be superannuated.

Churchill On Air Tomorrow; F.D.R. In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt returned to Washington today and, as a direct follow-up on the Quebec Conference, talked with diplomatic, state and military officials.

The list included Dr. T. V. Soong, Chinese Foreign Minister; Secretary of State Cordell Hull; General George C. Marshall, U.S. army chief of staff, and General H. H. Arnold, commanding the U.S. army air force.

Prime Minister Churchill is expected here within a week to pick up some of the loose threads of the Quebec meeting. There is reason to believe this forthcoming meeting will centre mostly on political aspects of the war and on a postwar program.

Hull went to Quebec principally to consider such problems in a cross-the-table conversations with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden.

PLANS AGAINST JAPAN

Presumably Dr. Soong's engagement at the White House today was for a continuation of talks started at Quebec on strategy against Japan.

Prospects for a tri-partite meeting among representatives of the U.S., Great Britain and Russia, mentioned as a possibility in the joint Quebec communique, may receive the attention of Mr. Churchill and Mr. Roosevelt, as well as political questions involved in administering temporary governments of liberated nations.

Some officials, however, are inclined to believe the Prime Minister's latest visit here will be confined largely to gathering up any loose ends or discussing secondary questions that may have remained unsettled at conferences in the Canadian city in the last two weeks.

They based this on the phraseology of the joint communique which said that the President and Prime Minister "were able to receive and approve the unanimous recommendations of the combined chiefs of staff" and also had reached agreement on political issues "underlying or arising out of the military operations."

It also was pointed out by these same officials that this would be the first opportunity for the Prime Minister's wife and daughter Mary, a subaltern in the territorial service, to see the United States war-time capital since the British leader began his trips to Washington in December.

1941, a few weeks after the Japanese had struck in Hawaii. They did not accompany him here then or on his visits in June, 1942, and May, 1943.

Mr. Churchill, who remained in Canada after the Quebec strategy conferences had ended last Tuesday, will deliver a radio address tomorrow at 10 a.m., P.D.T. It has not been announced when he would reach Washington.

21 Lose Lives In Mine Explosions

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Twenty-one dead were counted today from the two gas explosions which late Saturday and early Sunday tore through the Republic Steel Corporation's No. 2 Syreton coal mine here.

Twenty-three others were burned, several of them critically.

Among those killed were E. J. McCrossin, chief state mine inspector; George Ferguson, Sayreton night superintendent, and William Goodwin, chief mine inspector here for Republic. They headed rescue parties which entered the mine after the first blast.

Miner Andy M. King said he was "blown at least 30 feet through the air" by the second explosion inside the mine. His hair was singed, but he was otherwise unharmed.

A company spokesman estimated 100 of the regular crew of 135 men made their way to safety between the explosions.

MED BIGGER HAZARD THAN JAPS AT KINKA—The overall trend of Kinkas, the Aleutians and adjacent territory, gave Canadians a bigger battle than Japanese soldiers when the combined American-Canadian task force re-occupied the island outpost. Two weary Canadians, Bdr. W. H. Meyers of Airdare, Alta, and Bdr. R. S. Ellis, right, of Rowley, Alta., are content to flop down back to back under full pack after a march. Jam, Jelly, Marmalade, Syrup Quotas Announced: More Sugar Released

OTTAWA (CP) — The Prices Board Sunday night announced ration allowances for jams, jellies, syrups, canned fruit and similar products. Sales of these goods are under suspension until Sept. 2, when D coupons from the new No. 3 ration books will become valid for sweetbreads and other goods of this type.

Two D coupons will become good each month. For each coupon the purchaser will have the choice of:

1. Six fluid ounces of jam, jelly, marmalade, extracted honey, apple butter, maple butter or honey butter or;
2. Ten fluid ounces of molasses or maple syrup or;
3. Ten fluid ounces of canned fruit or;
4. Twelve fluid ounces of corn syrup, cane syrup or any blended table syrup or;
5. One-half pound of maple sugar or comb honey in squares.

MAY GET SUGAR

As an alternative to any of these commodities the consumer may obtain for his D coupon one-half pound of sugar.

"The ration plan is similar to that used for meats since the consumer may spend a coupon for any one of the commodities rationed," depending on his choice and on what is available," the board's announcement said.

The D coupons will become good on the same dates as sugar coupons. The board said the plan will make for a more equitable distribution of commercially packed preserves and home-made preserves, as well as providing the alternative of the extra sugar for D coupons. There will be no restriction on the use of sugar obtained in this way.

MORE AVAILABLE

"It is possible to make more sugar available because of the substantial reduction in the commercial pack of jams, jellies and canned fruits occasioned by the short fruit crop and the consequent reduction in sugar used for these purposes," the board said.

Announcement was also made of an increase in the quotas of other industrial users of sugar, except wine manufacturers, from 70 to 80 per cent of 1941 usage. This increase will become effective Oct. 1.

Other details of the new rationing plan announced are: Hotels, institutions, restaurants, soda foundations and other similar users will be rationed by quota as in the case of other rationed foods.

QUOTAS FOR BAKERS

Industrial users of jams, preserves, such as bakers and confectioners will also be rationed by quotas, but the industrial use of honey, maple syrup and corn syrup will be severely restricted or eliminated entirely in order to make more of these commodities available to householders.

Infants who need more than the 24 fluid ounces of corn syrup per month provided under the ration will be issued extra "D" coupons against surrender of sugar coupons to local branches of the ration administration or to local ration boards.

When purchasing goods in containers it will not always be possible for the consumer to get the extra value shown on the chart for his coupon. However, he may purchase two or more containers if the total contents do not add up to more than the total value of the coupons presented.

Jelly powders, soya beans spreads and peanut butter are not included in the rationing plan.

Today's WAR NEWS Analysis

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst
Hitler's empire of conquered and satellite peoples is breaking up before his anxious eyes. Latest among the crises to tear the foundation of the Hitlerian structure are the grave situations in Denmark and Bulgaria.

It is significant that these two countries are among those which have been more favored by the Nazis. Hitler adopted an air of beneficence towards the Danes and Bulgarians, hoping to use them among the foundation stones for his new order.

The revolt of the liberty-loving Danes creates an especially grave danger for Hitler, since Denmark provides one of the several potential invasion coasts for the Allies, and the latter might take quick advantage of the situation if things looked particularly good.

EYES ON BULGARIA

Also a grave politico-military problem for the master gangster is the situation in the Balkans, another potential invasion theatre for the Allies. Bulgaria, his buffer state against the unpredictable Turks and one of his chief bulwarks against an assault by the United Nations up the peninsula, is tottering in loyalty. King Boris has met sudden and mysterious death, and his people have been parading the streets of their sombre capital, demanding peace.

It would be interesting to know which situation is giving Hitler the greater worry. Likely it's the Danish upheaval. A successful Allied invasion of western Europe right now, when the Russians are ripping up the Nazi lines in eastern Europe, would place Germany in the desperate position of having to wage major war on opposite fronts.

Then there's another aspect to the imbroglio in little Denmark. Relations between neighboring Sweden and the Reich have become so strained that the Swedes are walking close to war with Nazidom. If they should come into the conflict under those circumstances, they would automatically become one of the Allies. That would make Hitler's western front a hot spot.

HIS MISTAKE

King Boris was a dictator by nature. He carried his people into the war on the side of the Axis. He probably was impelled to do this because of Germany's powerful influence in the Balkan peninsula, because he thought the Reich was likely to win and bestow favors on Bulgaria, and because he was son-in-law of the king of Italy.

However, the Bulgarian people followed Boris into the war on the side of the Axis reluctantly. They are largely anti-German and are pro-Russian, because of the Slavic affinity. He who tries to make them fight further for Hitler is inviting trouble.

Perhaps the king lost his life because he finally recognized the futility of trying to force his subjects to give further support to the Nazis. We don't know how he died, but there are all sorts of reports going the rounds and it may be time will disclose that he was assassinated on Nazi orders because he had told Hitler in their recent conference that the game was up.

Divided Italian Navy Keeps Allied Force In Mediterranean

By EDWARD KENNEDY
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA (AP) — The Allied conquest of Sicily has cut what's left of Italian naval power in two. One part of Italy's fleet is at the La Spezia naval base, 180 miles north of Rome, and the other part is at Taranto, inside the Italian heel.

While the Italians held the Straits of Messina, it was an easy matter to shift ships back and forth between those two main bases. But with Allied domination of the straits, these two big naval elements are severed and could get together only with great risk of disastrous Allied naval and air attacks.

As long as the Italians keep warships at La Spezia and Taranto they compel the Allies to keep a sizeable naval strength in the Mediterranean which otherwise might be shifted to the Pacific or some other theatre.

And despite losses, the Italian fleet remains an important prize which the Allies could turn to good account. In Allied hands, the Italian warships might prove exceptionally useful in any offensive against Japan.

said to be in operation. Her losses in light and heavy cruisers, destroyers and submarines are believed more than 50 per cent, and weaknesses in these craft, especially destroyers, make it difficult for her capital ships to operate effectively.

Should the Italian fleet fall to the Allies, it would not only make all that's left of her navy available for the Pacific or elsewhere, but would enable the Allies to move a large part of their own naval vessels away from the Mediterranean.

It is doubted here that Italy will let her fleet fall into German hands if she possibly can avoid it. Her natural interest, it is said, would be to try to hold what remains of her fleet for bargaining with the Allies.

It is conceivable that Italy might ask for some concessions in return for not turning over her navy to the Germans or scuttling it—and might get some.

Sodium Amytal Boon to Soldiers

TORONTO (CP) — The Toronto Daily Star in a newspaper story says that with a comparatively new drug—sodium amytal, "soldiers who have reached the point through battle fatigue where they cannot sleep are given the drug, and they sleep."

Sometimes, the paper adds, the slumber lasts unbroken for a week or 10 days. At other times 20-minute treatment is sufficient.

"The patients obtain complete physical and mental relaxation," the paper says.

"In cases of so-called shell shock, or where an added psychological element is involved, they reveal their problem to the doctor in the complete truth. When the soldier awakens, the problem which has been preying on his mind is discussed and he is a good soldier again."

"In the front lines, in hospitals in England, at Christie Street (Military) Hospital in Toronto, almost miraculous results are being accomplished, it is reported."

Industry is helping win the war...
industry must help build a peacetime world

After the war is decisively won... what kind of world is essential for a just and durable peace?

This question is being asked today everywhere in the world. No expert is needed to tell you the answer.

It must be a world as peaceful and neighbourly as your own town; a world in which decent people can bring up their children decently. It must be a busy world where factories and farms are working and where there are jobs for all.

How can such a world be brought into being? The surest way is to think and talk about it. Full and complete discussions on the porches of this country, over its fences, in churches, schools, clubs, and always at meals—that is how the terms of A JUST AND DURABLE PEACE can be formulated.

In your discussions keep in mind this fact; your terms of peace must be such that the people of other lands can agree with them. There must be provision in your plans for sustained production and for consumption of that production.

Only a world peace that squares with the conscience of men of good will can be just. Only a just peace can endure.

Brave Little Denmark

HITLER'S "MODEL STATE" UNDER the so-called Nazi new order has violently exploded "right in the Fuehrer's face." As if the head of the Third Reich had not sufficient to worry him in Russia, in Bulgaria, and on the home front under innumerable heads, Denmark must needs add to his manifold complexities by ending her state of reluctant "co-operation" by open revolt. Nearly two weeks have elapsed since the Danish workers and the Danish people decided to take matters more aggressively into their own hands. It required only the Nazi attempt to force the government to relinquish its jurisdiction over the courts to fan into flame a state of mind which had been smoldering for many months. Developments of the last few days have revealed the extent of the pent-up emotions which the Danes have miraculously covered with a pseudo-collaborationist veneer ever since the Nazi hordes marched into their country in April, 1940.

Sweden's refusal to continue the arrangement by which German troops and supplies were permitted transit through that neutral country obliged the enemy to use Danish territory and the Danish railway system to maintain the Reich's connection with Norway. While the Danes had many scores to settle with their taskmasters in addition to the important successes they had achieved through their persistent campaign of industrial and other sabotage—including the destruction of tracks and bridges—this new use of their country against their friendly neighbor on the north added fuel to the flame of revolt. The introduction of martial law and the suppression of every form of social activity throughout Denmark, of course, conform to the familiar Nazi pattern. The death penalty for even the most trivial offences against the "interests of the Reich" is the handmaiden of totalitarianism in practice; all the occupied countries have suffered and are suffering in the same way. It is part of the "new order" which Hitler has sought to fasten on any people daring to bar his way. The outside world must now expect the shooting of Danish patriots as hostages.

Evidently the people of Denmark have counted the cost; the scuttling of part of their navy and the escape of other fighting ships to neutral Sweden is an earnest of their determination to demonstrate to the world that they are writhing under the appellation of the Axis "model state." And the fact that these gallant and peaceful folk have chosen this stage of the war to rebel against their brutal taskmasters will impress lovers of liberty everywhere. The rats are now in the corner; the men of Berlin are desperate. They will stop at nothing to delay and try to thwart the plans of deliverance which they know the United Nations are about to put into effect in Europe. This is certain to mean the vilest kind of technique for a nation which the Fuehrer had boasted as the finest advertisement for his political system. All free and enslaved men and women will salute and sympathize with the Danes in their open defiance of the Nazi tyranny.

Realistic Coalition

WHEN THE LEGISLATURE OF ALBERTA dissolved three and a half years ago it was composed of 51 Social Creditors out of a total membership of 63. One seat was vacant and the other 11 were occupied by five Liberals, two Conservatives, three Independent Social Creditors, and one Unity member. The election on March 21, 1940, cut the government's following to 36 and the rest of the House—reduced in membership to 57 from 63—at the beginning of this year was made up of 19 Independents, one Liberal and one Laborite. When the present administration intends to ask for new instructions, of course, is a secret it is keeping to itself.

What is now crystal clear to the people of Alberta is the paramount fact that its successive Social Credit governments have given them no Social Credit and none of the social dividends that were promised with such a fanfare in the hey-day of the late Mr. Aberhart's popularity. To the discredit of its much-vaunted financial reform policies, however, is the repudiation of bond interest. And in this regard, it should be noted, the gross funded debt of the province at present stands at $156,000,000, a large portion of which it is desirous of refunding at a price substantially below what could be considered anything like equitable to the creditors. This is a situation which, at long last, is giving Liberals and Conservatives much food for thought as they consider the urgent necessity of popular education in the light of preparations for the next election.

Governments committed to the philosophy of Aberhartism have survived because no definite alternative has hitherto presented itself. Because Liberals and Conservatives, though no disagreement of principle existed between them—have refused to combine against it. In other words, as the Vancouver Sun quite properly points out, "the professional politicians, more eager to maintain their own organizations than to defeat the government, made any sensible party division impossible in Alberta politics."

Under the plan about to be launched, the two old parties have decided to co-operate in a joint movement which will nominate joint candidates and act in every respect as a single party opposed to Social Credit and Socialism. This hopeful development, moreover, evokes the following pointed comment from our Vancouver contemporary. "We have not completed the process in British Columbia. The people have seen the necessity for a permanent change, the liquidation of the old party machines and the formation of a single party of private initiative, but the professional politicians have yet to see it. The experience of Alberta should be a warning to them."

When this province has fully completed the process which has worked well in Manitoba, and now about to be inaugurated in Alberta, provincial government, as the Sun reminds us, will no longer be complicated and bedeviled by the old attempt to square provincial with federal policy—to injure federal enemies and help federal friends. But time, obviously, is of the essence.

What Will Bulgaria Do?

REGARDLESS OF WHETHER HE DIED a natural death, or whether he was quietly "assisted" into the hereafter by someone who preferred his room to his presence, few tears will be shed over the passing of King Boris of Bulgaria. He earned the title of "traitor king"—and Mr. Churchill gave it to him when he hitched his people to Adolf Hitler's war chariot. Nor was that decision wholly surprising; his consort is the daughter of the Italian monarch; and his German father took his country into the first Great War on the side of the Central Powers. Evidently what is born of the flesh is bred in the bone; or, perhaps, in the case of Boris it was the Bourbon mind running true to form.

For many months before the Fuehrer finally succeeded in persuading the late King Boris to ignore the lessons of history it was generally believed that Bulgaria somehow would find a way of remaining outside the Axis fold. The nation's peasantry—representing about 80 per cent of the populace—always had been friendly to the peoples of the Soviet Union; their Slavic affinity dominated their thoughts and influenced their actions. And many Bulgars were constantly recalling what happened to them and their country through their military association with the first Reich of Wilhelm Hohenzollern. For "Ferdinand the fox" had chosen the losing side. The government collapsed in the fall of 1918; the king gave up his throne and was succeeded by his son Boris—who is now no more. This was the beginning of the enemy's eventual collapse. Under the Treaty of Neuilly, it will be recalled, Bulgaria lost much of her territory and was charged a heavy indemnity.

For several years, of course, Ferdinand's successor had been openly pro-Fascist. He succeeded in surrounding himself with advisers who were noted for similar proclivities. The whole of the military caste supported him in his alliance with the Axis powers. But the eclipse of Mussolini, the fall of Sicily, coupled with the shadow of continued Russian successes on the eastern front, obviously had obliged Boris to take stock of his position. What transpired between him and the Fuehrer on his recent visit to Berlin, of course, is easier to imagine than to set down in categorical terms. And the men of the Reich are satisfying nobody's curiosity.

Censorship of the hermetically-sealed variety is preventing the outside world from getting any reliable information of what is going on in Sofia or in other parts of the country. That demonstrations against Germany, and of further continuance of the nation's vassalage to the Reich, already have broken out can be taken for granted. One report has it that the Nazi legation was stormed immediately the news of the monarch's death became known. This may or may not be borne out by the facts; in any case, however, it should be fairly safe to suggest that the unfolding scene in the weakest Axis state is engaging the close attention of the United Nations. Not the least interested country is Turkey; she has an old score to settle with Bulgaria.

And Mr. Bracken Said 'Hoax'

THE USE FOR THE FIRST TIME OUTSIDE the Dominion of drafted men in the Canadian army, intermingled with volunteers, in the Kiska operation and their creditable performance of which Major-General Pearkes, V.C., and others have spoken, undermines the criticism directed against the government at the time the National Resources Mobilization Act was before the Canadian Parliament.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King has stated that the government had never regarded the men called-up for service under the N.R.M.A. as a separate or static force. On the contrary, they have been recognized as an integral part of the active military forces of Canada. The operations at Kiska, although outside the Dominion, have rightly been regarded and accepted as an offensive defence of Canada.

Early this summer Progressive Conservative Leader Bracken spoke of the home defence army which was then training near Victoria and elsewhere on this Island for this very job in the Aleutians as "the biggest hoax ever perpetrated on the nation." On July 5 in the House of Commons Mr. Mackenzie King said Mr. Bracken would "come greatly to regret" having made such a statement. Mr. Bracken has not had long to wait to experience the boomerang effect of his loose talk.

THE RECORD

THE RELATIONSHIP between Russia and the English-speaking world is probably the most important fact of our times. It will dominate the postwar period. It will largely determine whether we are to have peace or only an armistice in preparation for another war. That is why the statesmen of the western democracies are so concerned at the moment with Russia. But the record of history lying behind all this is not generally known by the western peoples.

We have never liked the Russian system of government and the Russians have never liked ours. The Czars considered us dangerous radicals, devoted to the wild principle of democracy, whereas they preferred serfdom, the system of Siberian exile and the occasional salutary shooting of mobs in the courtyard of the Winter Palace. We, on the other hand, regarded the reactionary Russian government as a hangover from the Middle Ages.

Now, of course, by one of those jolly paradoxes of history, the order of hostility is reversed. We regard the Russian system as dangerously radical and the Russians think our system is the true flowering of Colonel Blimpdom.

SELF-INTEREST

HOWEVER, IT IS to be noted that this ideological quarrel has never dominated the relationship between Russia and us. In the pinch we have generally worked together when we were in danger.

As Walter Lippman showed in his recent book on American foreign policy, the Russian government from the beginning realized that it must support the existence of the United States and hence of democracy in the western world because it could not afford to do otherwise. Thus, even though it was embarrassed by a rising of freedom-loving Poles at the time, the Russian government helped the North in the American Civil war, sending fleets of battleships to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of America, because it knew that the American Union was essential to its safety. The first World War found Russia fighting with the democracies. This war finds it largely carrying the burden of the war against a common enemy.

The logic of all this is quite obvious. Russia was essential to the western world and the western world to Russia because each was a potential friend at the back of a potential enemy. Russia was our potential friend behind the potential enemies, Germany and Japan. We were Russia's potential friends behind the same enemies. Hence, the dominant self-interest on both sides has brought us together in the pinch, no matter what we thought of each other's form of government. In the end this combination dictated by self-interest has saved the world from Fascism.

THE CHANGE

BUT THE SITUATION has now fundamentally changed and we can no longer count on the old inevitable balance and combination. For this reason:

When the war is over Germany and Japan will have ceased to be powers of the first magnitude. They will not disappear but they will never be in a position again to seek the domination of Europe and Asia respectively. Not alone because they will be weakened but because other powers will have grown stronger. Russia will be the great power of Europe. China will be the great power of Asia; just as France was replaced as the great power of Europe by Germany after the Napoleonic wars and the rise of German industry.

Therefore, as Mr. Lippman says, Russia will no longer be a potential friend in the rear of America's enemies, but will be on the contrary, the greatest power in the rear of her indispensable friends—the British, Scandinavian, Dutch, Belgian and Latin members of the Atlantic community. Russia will not have to seek our aid to protect itself from Germany or from Japan. We shall not have to seek her aid to protect ourselves from those nations.

It is evident, therefore, that the decline of Germany and Japan will create an entirely new situation between us and Russia. This does not mean that friendship between us becomes less important, but more so. If we fail to maintain this friendship, if we cannot work with Russia in the postwar world, then our civilization is certainly going to the dogs. We shall inevitably find Russia creating a bloc of allies in Europe and Asia and we shall create an opposing bloc, and in the end the two blocs will clash in a war greater than this.

Thus while in an immediate sense, the self-interest of co-operation between us and the Russians may seem to have declined, in a larger and permanent sense it has increased. The supreme self-interest of Russia and of the western world is to avoid another great war and it can be avoided only by our ability to live and work together. That is why the relationship between Russia and the democracies is the greatest current question in the world and will remain long after the war has been won.

BREVITY

Loose Talk About 'Second Front'

Mark Sullivan in Washington, D.C., Star

Russia's sense of grievance arises from contemplating her own situation. She tends, possibly by a trait of Slavic temperament, to measure achievement by sacrifice, by blood poured out. She sees herself having lost millions of men, while we and Britain have lost relatively few.

Probably we shall have to endure the spirit of reproach in the Russian leaders' attitude, try to understand it and sympathize with it—but at the same time fight the whole global war in the way our military leaders deem best.

Between the Russian conception, and that of our military leaders, there has been a fundamental difference. Russia standing under the guns, obliged to fight desperately from day to day, obliged to improvise her forces as she could, was unable to see why we, too, should not improvise.

ON TO BERLIN

What Russia wanted was speed—quick action on our part that would relieve the terrible pressure upon herself. Russia's measure of the usefulness and efficacy of a second front was merely that it should divert German force from the Russian front.

But our conception of a second front has been one that will stick, that will be successful; that would be so well planned and prepared that it could land successfully, meet the Germans successfully, and go on to Berlin successfully.

This factor of thoroughness and surefootedness in the British and American conception may entail time, but it has its own virtues and yields its own fruits. From the time we placed our troops alongside the British, the combined forces have suffered no setback. The carefully planned and hard driven campaign in Tunisia brought defeat of the Axis there sooner than was expected.

Similarly, the campaign in Sicily has brought success sooner than expected. The effect has been to create an impression of invincibility.

The impression of invincibility, as a psychological thing, may seem, in the Russian view, not to be compared with her losses in blood.

HOME FRONT PRESSURE

While the Russians deserve patience in their demand for a second front, it is less easy to be patient with some of our own people. Beginning more than a year and a quarter ago, there have been frequent eruptions, in America, of pressure upon our government and our military leaders for what was sometimes put in a slogan as "A Second Front Now."

The fact, known to our government and military leaders, was that at no time during 1942 was it possible to set up a second front in Europe. At no time did we have the shipping to supply a second front. Throughout all 1942 two conditions existed that made a second front impossible.

One was enemy submarines were sinking more of our merchant shipping than we were building—the quantity of ship-

RELY ON OUR LEADERS

These adverse conditions are now reversed. We have indisputable air superiority, we are building far more merchant shipping than the submarines are sinking. But to say this is not to encourage another popular demand for a second front. That may be, or may not be the best next step in the global war we fight.

For the public the only rule is to rely upon our military leaders. They deserve the reliance.

ping to transport and supply a second front was actually diminishing. The other was, the Germans were building more submarines than we were sinking.

A Report to the Canadian People on the War Production Effort

TIP TOP TAILORS

Limited

In 1939, when Canada joined the war against the Axis, Tip Top Tailors was assigned to its production job—uniforms for the Armed Forces.

As a leader in Canada's clothing industry, it was only natural that we should be in the forefront of this gigantic task of helping to outfit our fighting men.

Our entire plant facilities were at once radically re-arranged. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were expended in new plants and equipment. Additional hundreds of workers were employed. The watch-word at Tip Top Tailors became (and still is) "full speed ahead on war production!"

Naturally, we encountered many problems at first. However, our three decades of clothing experience, the collective skill and knowledge of our personnel, overcame all problems in short order.

What is the situation today? For over one year and a half now, our plant on Fleet Street, Toronto, has produced a military garment at the unprecedented rate of one every 8 seconds! Over 80% of our complete production is now ear-marked for our fighting men. These uniforms are made to rigid standards. Only the finest materials and the highest type of workmanship are permitted.

And what about civilian clothing? We are still helping to dress Canadian men and women in fine-tailored-to-measure clothing—but in proportion to the facilities available. If you are in need of civilian clothing, the above paragraphs will help you to understand why you may be asked to wait a little longer than usual for delivery of your Tip Top garment. Victory comes first, and to ensure victory our armed forces must come first—every time.

'Competition for Advantage' Must End, Says H. G. Wells

H. G. Wells outlines a plan for the future in the following interview with Carlos de Negri, representing the Mexico City newspaper Excelsior, member of a party of touring Latin-American editors. The British author says it will probably be his only utterance during the war.

B CARLOS DE NEGRI
(Distributed by the Canadian Press)

LONDON—In the first interview he has given any newspaperman since the war began H. G. Wells today made to this reporter the following transcendental statement:

"There is no way out of the present chaotic state of human affairs but a world-wide revolutionary movement on an equalitarian socialistic basis."

"Unless such a conclusion is reached humanity will find no profit from this war at all but increase in its distress."

LENGTHY STUDY

Considered one of the most distinguished thinkers on humanity today, Wells agreed to answer my questions after telling me that since the war broke out he has dedicated all his time to study and meditation and that this is the first time he had given a journalistic interview.

Wells said:
"I hope a world relieved from waste and the destruction of competition, of which war is only an intenser form, can achieve triumphs of scientific, artistic and productive achievements beyond anything we can dream of at the present time, because this new order in the world would relieve creative energy of hundreds of millions of human beings who now have neither freedom nor energy for self achievement."

ACTION DEMANDED

"A gathering number of people of the world are moving toward the conviction that something more than great promises and assertions from above are needed. They ask for more than charters and guarantees. They ask that everywhere in the unfurling world ahead of us the fundamental law of the community shall be the natural universal rights of man."

"Mankind now has all the power and substance available for universal plenty and well-being beyond the dream of any previous age, and he is wasting it all in destruction."

"This war neither began nor will end that."

"There can be no end to all this slaughter, privation and misery which now goes on from bad to worse unless there is a wide agreement among human beings all round about the earth to end it."

WOULD END COMPETITION

To repeat one of my questions, "what has to end?" Wells said:

"What has to end, in one word, is competition for advantage over one's fellowman—not competition for the honor and privilege of serving mankind, but competition to dominate; competition in business, competition between states and nations, competition between communities which imagine themselves to be particularly privileged and superior communities."

He added: "This struggle is only one result of the immense disaster that competition for advantage under new world conditions may inflict upon mankind. Business competition equipped with these new powers has culminated in world monopolies that will strangle all free initiative. The threat of a combination of political and economic tyranny over our race has never been so plain."

NEW CHARTER

With a large group of intellectuals and men of science of the whole world, Wells is now working in the preparation of a new Magna Charta for the future which takes into account the natural rights of man and the necessity of universal accord among peoples based on social transformation. Wells told me it was the only possible salvation for humanity.

Hess Spends Time Writing Poor Poetry

LONDON (CP)—Rudolf Hess, who wrote a peace plan and flew to Britain with it, now spends his time writing poor verse, sheet after sheet, the London Daily Express said today.

When Hitler's No. 2 deputy landed in Britain, May 10, 1941, he was a typical Nazi, aggressive, arrogant and apparently certain of a German triumph, said the paper. Now his aggressiveness is gone because other prisoners have told him of certain Axis defeats. He is quiet, moody and often depressed.

Only once in two years has he been taken from his place of confinement in the English countryside, the Daily Express said.

The newspaper said the Hess "peace plan" provided for a united states of Europe with Hitler as president and that Britain should yield to the Axis her Mediterranean, Suez and Middle East spheres of influence.

Women, Children Marooned 40 Hours On Lasqueti Island

NANAIMO (CP)—Choppy seas and a heavy rainstorm marooned two women and eight children from 8 to 12 years of age with only half a loaf of bread for 40 hours on Lasqueti Island, about 25 miles north of Nanaimo, last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, it was learned Sunday night.

The party was rescued by Joseph Addison and O. A. Buck, both of Nanaimo, who were cruising in their boat, Latona. The storm caused Addison and Buck to pull into a cove and Friday morning they discovered the 10 persons and took them off the island later in the day.

As the Latona approached the island Addison observed a woman waving some sort of flag.

When Addison and Buck rowed ashore a young woman rushed up to them and cried: "O thank God, someone has come to our aid. We have been here since Wednesday night."

Addison, Buck and the women walked along the beach until they came to a small shelter, where they found the other woman and the children. They were clad only in bathing suits and shorts, and were cold, wet and hungry.

PICNIC PARTY

They said they had started out from their home in Lantzville, a village about 15 miles from Nanaimo, Wednesday afternoon in a 15-foot dingy and a canoe on a picnic.

The sea was calm all the way over. "But it started to be very squally shortly after we landed on the island."

"At 7 p.m. the sea was worse, and it began to rain. We packed our things in the boat and started to shove off, but the waves swamped the boat and nearly made us go over. This petrified the children, and we thought it would be wiser to go ashore again until the sea calmed down. "The wind and rain howled all night and we knew it would be too risky to attempt getting away."

Thursday the sea was still as bad as ever.

The women said they had a hard time with the children, as they were continually crying.

C.W.A.C. Parade To American And Own Pipe Bands

MONTREAL (CP) — Thousands of Montrealers lined Sherbrooke Street Sunday to watch 1,000 American and Canadian women in uniform parade in celebration of the second anniversary of the Canadian Women's Army Corps. Roads Minister T. C. Bouchard took the salute with Maj. Gen. E. J. Renaud, officer commanding Military District No. 4.

Feature of the parade were the military band of the American W.A.C.'s from Des Moines, Iowa, and the pipe band of the C.W.A.C.

The Canadian Women's Army Corps, which had its origin in Victoria when Lt. Col. Joan Kennedy started the British Columbia Women's Service Corps in this city as long ago as 1938, will celebrate the second anniversary of its inception this week.

Parades, sports and dances will be featured during the week. Saturday at 1 p.m. 350 C.W.A.C. will parade through the downtown section of Victoria, and will continue on to Central Park, where they will celebrate their second anniversary with a big field and track event. They will finish off the day with a dance at the Y.M.C.A. hut at Work Point.

A church parade Sunday, Sept. 5, at St. John's Church, with the Rev. G. Biddle officiating, will conclude the week of activities.

During the two years that the C.W.A.C. has been formed over 14,000 have been enlisted, though 35,000 was the goal set. While enlistments in the C.W.A.C. are not as large as a year ago, this is due to a very large extent to a very thorough sifting of applicants to insure that only women of high physical, mental and moral standard are enlisted.

Mrs. Roosevelt Talks To New Zealanders

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt in a speech here Sunday discussed postwar reconstruction and stressed the need for men and women of the United Nations to exert every energy to solving mutual world problems.

"At the end of the last war the people of my nation thought they could withdraw from a united world, mind their own business and only have intercourse through trade with other nations," she said. "Finally we reaped a bitter harvest, hard and grimly, in the economic depression which fell upon the world."

Vice-Admiral Nelles Takes 'Wren' Salute

OTTAWA (CP) — Vice-Admiral Percy W. Nelles, chief of naval staff, Sunday took the salute at a parade of members of the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service to mark its first anniversary.

Behind Vice-Admiral Nelles were Capt. Dorothy Isherwood, director of the W.R.C.N.S., and Lt. Cmdr. Doris Taylor of Winnipeg, together with representatives of the Canadian Women's Army Corps and the women's division of the R.C.A.F.

A year ago the Royal Canadian Navy was an all-male service, but since then many of the officers and men have been shifted to sea duty and replaced in their shore billets by the youngest branch of the women's armed services, the women's Royal Canadian Naval Service, which observed its first anniversary Sunday.

The Navy said today that nearly 4,000 women are serving with the Wrens—an enrollment almost double that anticipated by Navy Minister Macdonald when he said in the House of Commons May 8, 1942, that the R.C.N. was to have a sister service, and that it was estimated the first year's enrolment would not exceed 2,000 Wrens.

In messages to the W.R.C.N.S. Mr. Macdonald, Vice-Admiral P. W. Nelles, chief of naval staff, and Capt. Dorothy Isherwood, director of the Wrens, praised the record of "hard work and dedication to duty" established by its members.

Maquinna Daniels Bride Sunday Of Capt. W. I. Anderson

ASO. Maquinna Daniels, R.C. A.F. (W.D.), well-known Victoria pianiste, was the bride at a quiet ceremony in Metropolitan United Church Sunday afternoon at 3, when she was united in marriage to Capt. William I. Anderson, No. 12 Detachment, R.C.A.P.C., Rev. A. E. Whitehouse officiating.

Miss Daniels, who was born in Victoria, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Daniels, 94 Linden Avenue, and the groom the only son of Mrs. Margaret Anderson, 1145 Faithful Street. Miss Daniels for a number of years prior to her enlistment last year was a well-known music teacher here. She received her L.R.S.M. as a pianiste and won three silver medals at musical festivals, and also was a gold medalist for all Canada in one of her music examinations. She received her R.C.A.F. basic training at Harver College, Toronto, and won honors in her motor transport group. She was then chosen to take an administrative course, and received the general proficiency medal for the highest marks on graduation. She is also a popular member of Beta Sigma Phi.

Standard baskets of all-white gladioli, snapdragons and asters, flanked by lighted candelabra, made a pretty background for the ceremony. Mr. Edward Parsons was at the organ, and Mrs. Nora Jones, Jeffrey sang Handel's "Where'er You Walk," as the bridal party was in the vestry.

Mr. Daniels gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a smart dressmaker suit of beige wool, with darker brown accessories, and a corsage bouquet of tiger lilies. Mrs. Don Whiteley was her only attendant, wearing a brown gabardine suit with brown and turquoise accessories, and a corsage bouquet of African daisies. Lieut. Richard B. George, R.C.A.P.C., was best man, and Staff-Serg. Horace McClung and Air Cadet Roy Baker were ushers.

After the ceremony the bridal party and members of both families gathered at the home of the bride's parents for refreshments. Capt. and Mrs. Anderson leaving later for a honeymoon at Qualicum Beach. On their return, the bride will leave to resume her duties at No. 2 B. and G. School.

Mossbank, Sask., and the groom to duty at Military District Headquarters at Regina, Sask.

MORETTI-RICHMOND

Rev. Father J. A. Gaudette united in marriage Saturday evening in St. Andrew's Cathedral, Enid Alma, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richmond, 1761 Lee Avenue, and Ldg. Writer Raymond Moretti, R.C.N. V.R., second son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Moretti, Nanaimo. Miss Marguerite McKay played the wedding marches and "Ave Maria" during the signing of the register.

White satin, fashioned with a floor-length skirt and long pointed sleeves, was worn by the bride, with a cluster of orange blossoms holding her chapel veil in place. She was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white prayer-book surmounted by a gardenia and showered with rosebuds. The bridesmaids were Miss Gwendolyn Dodsforth, in a frock of mauve taffeta and a matching flower hat, holding a bouquet of mauve and palest pink sweet peas and violets, and Misses Maureen Callan and Evelyn Dopp, in shell pink sheer frocks and matching shoulder veils caught with fresh mauve and pink sweet peas, which corresponded with their bouquets. L.W. Richard-Wakeley, R.C.N.V.R., was groomsmen, and acting as ushers were L.W. Jerry Royston and L.W. Roy Stacey, R.C.N.V.R.

Red, white and blue zinnias and gladioli carried out a patriotic color scheme at a reception at the home of the bride's parents, where they were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. A. Moretti. A large silver bowl of the same flowers centred the supper table flanked by tall white tapers, and at one end was the cake which was cut by the bride after the toasts had been given by Mr. Frank Morrison and Rev. Father Gaudette.

Going away, the bride wore a chocolate brown and beige ensemble, with a corsage bouquet of gardenias. L.W. and Mrs. Moretti will reside in Victoria, after a honeymoon on the mainland.

MCKINNON-WALLACE

Margaret Ruth, only daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. D. A. Wallace, 1259 Acton Street, became the bride Saturday evening at 8.30 of Bdr. William Hall McKinnon, R.C.A., younger son of Mr. and Mrs. W. McKinnon, 3814 Rowland Avenue. Mr. H. L. Hopkins read the nuptial rites before a background of white and peach gladioli, arranged at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Sidney Biggs played the wedding music, and Mr. Andrew Hogg sang "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Wearing a gown of white silk crepe, having the bracelet-length sleeves, low waistline and yoke trimmed with satin pleating, the bride was given away by her father. White gladioli blossoms caught her finger-tip veil, and she carried an arm-bouquet of pink rosebuds and heather. Mrs. George Wallace, sister-in-law of the bride, was the only attendant, and wore a gown of turquoise blue crepe, with pink satin trim, similar to the bride's, matching hat, and carried a Colonial bouquet of bleeding flowers. Flt. Sgt. Richard Gill supported the groom, and Mr. George Wallace was usher.

During the reception which followed, the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Wallace, wearing a rose frock and navy accessories, assisted by Mrs. McKinnon in powder blue with black accessories. Both wore shoulder sprays of pink rosebuds. A three-tier wedding cake centred the supper table, flanked by white tapers in silver holders.

Bdr. and Mrs. McKinnon left for a honeymoon at Harrison Hot Springs, and will live in Victoria on their return. For traveling, the bride wore a primrose yellow silk crepe suit, navy accessories, and navy blue topcoat with bleached wolf lapels.

Speculation Rife On Whom Princess Elizabeth to Wed

By ALFRED E. WALL

NEW YORK (AP)—Rumors are flying about the marriage plans of Princess Elizabeth of the House of Windsor, but here are two good bets—that there is nothing definite under way right now, and that she herself will have the principal say when the time does come.

The pretty Princess is in her 18th year—members of the Royal Family become of age at 18. When she does marry it will be a union of two attractive young people who are in love. There won't be any "fixed" marriage to bolster international relations.

Of course, Princess Elizabeth is not entirely free. There are certain elements of "eligibility."

The probabilities are that Princess Elizabeth eventually will choose someone she has met or will meet at the royal lodge in Windsor Great Park, which the family calls their own home.

Royal lineage is no requirement. The Queen herself was a commoner—a member of the Bowes-Lyon family.

One of Princess Elizabeth's closest friends is ruled out of the running because he is a first cousin. He is George, Viscount Lascelles, eldest son of Mary, Princess Royal.

He and Elizabeth are pals. He is of quiet manner and a good musician. They have been together a lot. They used to play cricket in a little private garden off Hyde Park when they were children together and Elizabeth's parents were the Duke and Duchess of York. George now is 21. But there is nothing there except a cousinly interest. At any rate there has been too much royal intermarriage in the past, and the present rulers are against it.

Princess Elizabeth has met and danced with many young sons of the Queen's ladies-in-waiting and the Kings' equerries.

Among these, and certainly one who must be considered eligible, is the 19-year-old son of Countess Spencer. He is Viscount Althorp, an Eton boy, typically English, blue-eyed, fair-haired, tall and athletic.

Then there are the three sons of the Duchess of Northumberland, who is mistress of the robes to the Queen.

The present Duke is 30, and therefore considered too old, but there are his younger brothers, Lord Richard Percy, 22, and Lord Geoffrey Percy, 18. Elizabeth has met and danced with them all.

The Queen's closest friend, Lady Doris Vyner, daughter of the eighth Duke of Richmond, also has an eligible son, Charles Vyner, who has no title but whose father is a relative of the Marquis of Northampton.

Among others are the three orphan sons of an Irish couple, the late Lord and Lady Plunkett, who were killed in an airplane crash in the United States before the war.

The Queen always has taken a great interest in these three, the oldest of whom is Lord Plunkett, three years older than Princess Elizabeth.

Red Cross Notes

Gorge Unit of the Red Cross will meet Thursday at 2 in the Gorge Presbyterian Church Hall. All members are requested to be present and new members will be welcomed.

A meeting of all Red Cross recorders will be held at 8 to-night at Christ Church Memorial Hall. It is important that all recorders attend.

Members of the food section, Canadian Red Cross Corps, were as usual on duty Sunday afternoon at Beacon Hill Park serving refreshments to the members of the services. Only those in uniform and those accompanied with those in uniform are permitted to take advantage of this new mobile canteen service operated by the Canadian Red Cross and which is proving very popular and a real service.

TARGETS FOR THE ALLIES: GERMANY'S AIRCRAFT FACTORIES—These are the cities, including Nuremberg bombed last week-end, where Germany builds her fighters and bombers—planes that are still a big barrier in the road to Allied victory. While Hitler is reported to have a reserve of 15,000 warplanes, his future production may be greatly decreased or halted by Allied raids on these aircraft factories.

Army Training System Reorganized

OTTAWA (CP)—An extensive reorganization of the army's training centre system, resulting in the closing down of eight centres and the grouping of basic with advanced centres is announced by the defence department.

The reorganization will have two consequences:

1. A number of officers and men now employed on training centre staffs will be released for duty as reinforcements or returned to civilian life.

2. When a recruit enters the army and is designated for a particular service, say infantry, he will proceed to an infantry basic training centre and pass on to an infantry advanced training centre, instead of going to a general army basic training centre and then to an advanced infantry training centre as in the past.

CLOSING GORDON HEAD

Included in the scheme of reorganization is the already announced closing of the officers' training centres at Three Rivers, Quebec, and Gordon Head, B.C.

As in the announcement of the closing of those centres, the new statement says the changes are possible because the "expansion stage in army units has passed" and training can now be devoted mainly to reinforcements.

The basic training centres at Lauzon, Que., Ottawa, and Regina are being closed as such and will be used as district depots. The basic centre at Huntingdon, Que., will be used for medical purposes and the one at Rimouski, Que., for operational purposes.

The basic centre at Chilliwack, B.C., is being closed and its future use is under consideration. Also under consideration are the future uses of the Three Rivers and Gordon Head officers' training centres.

LINK PLAN

Under what is called the "link training plan," other basic training centres will be specialized for the different services and linked with advanced training centres. In some cases the advanced centre and linked basic centre will be at the same camp.

These are: Artillery basic and advanced centres at Petawawa, Ont.; Brandon, Man.; and Shilo, Man.; engineers' centres at Petawawa and Chilliwack, B.C.; army service corps centres at Camp Borden, Ont. and Red Deer, Alta.; ordnance at Barrfield, Ont.; armored corps (reconnaissance regiments) at Dundurn, Sask., and the forestry centre at Chicoutimi, Que.

Unaffected are the following special training centres for officers, N.C.O.'s and instructors:

Phone Installations Further Restricted

More stringent regulations put into effect as telephone system approaches limit of its capacity

Our telephone system is now approaching the limit of its capacity. Because of necessary Government restrictions designed to save materials, manpower and manufacturing facilities for war purposes, we cannot add to our switchboards, or our automatic equipment, or our cables. We must simply do the best we can with what we have until the war is over.

Each telephone exchange can handle just so many lines. When that limit is reached, no more lines can be added. In each exchange we must set aside enough lines to take care of requests for essential telephone service between now and the end of the war. This leaves very little for non-essential service, and so we have been compelled to put even more stringent regulations into force, covering the installation of non-essential telephones. Our public offices will be glad to supply information to prospective applicants for service.

Bee Mac's Victory Gives Her Top Place

NEW YORK (AP)—The fair sex went to the head of the two-year-old racing parade in the east Saturday as Bee Mac, a chunky little filly with a lot of run, beat off all the boys to take the prized Hopeful Stakes.

Topping off the transplanted Saratoga meeting at Belmont—a meeting which brought 30,388 to the getaway program and rolled up a wagering total of close to $44,000,000 for its 30-day run—the dancing daughter of War Admiral not only became the first lady winner of the Hopeful in 29 years, but by her triumph she moved up to the top spot for the eastern juvenile championship of the year.

A gift from Col. E. B. Bradley to Beatrice MacGuire of New York a year ago, Bee Mac picked up a

$33,300 pay cheque, thereby boosting her earnings to $44,530. She was clocked in 1:18.25 for the 6½ furlongs over a muddy track. Favorite in the betting she paid

$4.60 for $2 as she led Boy Knight, from the barn of Crispin Oglebay, the Ohio steamship magnate, and By Jimmy, to the wire in that order.

Cincinnati Still Can Catch Cards

Split Double Bill Against Loop Leaders

It seems far-fetched, but there is a possibility Cincinnati Reds may overhaul St. Louis Cardinals in another of those hot September finishes usually associated with the National League.

A glance at the standings shows the Cards out in front by 10½ games, with only 34 left to play. The standings fail to show, however, that in the last two weeks the second-place Reds apparently have found themselves. In that period they won 14 of 18, including three straight over the Redbirds before losing the second half of Sunday's twin bill.

If the Reds maintain their remarkable pace of the last fortnight and sweep a four-game series with the Cards at St. Louis next week-end, the senior loop will witness another dogfight right down to the wire.

The largest crowd in the history of Crosley Field—38,017 turned out in Cincinnati, Sunday, and watched the Reds win the opener 5 to 3, and lose the nightcap 3 to 2 in 11 innings after coming from behind to tie the score in the ninth on Max Marshall's single.

Taking the mound in the 10th of the nightcap, Max Lanier pitched two perfect innings, striking out four of the six batters to face him. In addition, he singled to start the 11th, and eventually scored the winning run on Walker Cooper's one-baser.

Rudy York, Detroit slugger, clouted two homers as the Tigers beat St. Louis Browns twice, 15 to 5 and 4 to 2, but fell one shy of tying the record of so-called 18 round trippers in one month. The Tigers are tied to-day and tomorrow, thus costing York a chance to break the record. The four-basers were York's 29th and 30th of the year.

YANKS WIN PAIR
Charley Keller and Roy Weatherly each walloped two homers, and Spud Chandler won his 17th of the season as New York Yankees swept a double-header from Boston Red Sox 6 to 4 and 5 to 1 to maintain their 9½ game edge in the American League.

Rip Sewell of Pittsburgh failed to become the first 20-game winner in the majors when Chicago Cubs knocked him out of the box with a seven-run uprising in the ninth to win the first game of a twin bill 11 to 2. The Pirates gained a split by taking the nightcap 3 to 1.

Washington came from behind in both games to beat Philadelphia Athletics twice 5 to 4 in 11 innings and 2 to 1. Mel Harder and Allie Reynolds pitched Cleveland to a double victory over Chicago 2 to 1 and 6 to 1. Jeff Heath got his 18th homer in the nightcap.

Brooklyn swept a doubleheader from the Phillies, 3 to 1 and 8 to 0. Jim Tobin and Al Javery each won their 12th games of the season in pitching Boston Braves to a double triumph over New York Giants, 4 to 1 and 1 to 0. Javery won his own game by singling home Whitey Wietelmann in the fifth inning.

COAST LEAGUE
Seattle's hopes of catching second place San Francisco in the dying days of the Coast League faded sharply over the week-end as the Rainiers dropped two out of three games to the Portland Beavers.

The Seals' week-end record against Oakland was no better, but time definitely is on the side of the San Franciscans, now nine and a half games ahead of the Rainiers.

Seattle had to come from behind for a 7 to 3 victory in the nightcap of Sunday's doubleheader to salvage something from the weekend's engagements. The Beavers won the first Sunday contest 6 to 3 and won 6 to 4 Saturday.

Frank Tincup, new Rainier pitcher, who is a powerful pinch hitter, slashed out a double to climax a Seattle fourth-inning rally. Hal Sueme, Seattle catcher, drove in four runs, his big blow being a double in the fourth with the bases loaded. Ted Gullic, Larry Barton and Jack Wilson hit homers for the Beavers in the first game.

Los Angeles Angels made themselves all but mathematical certainties to cop the league crown by splitting a doubleheader with Hollywood. The Stars won the first game 2 to 1 and the Angels the second 3 to 0. The Seals split with Oakland, losing 5 to 3 and winning 3 to 0. San Diego swept a doubleheader from Sacramento, 3 to 2 and 3 to 0.

Interservice Swim Gala Carded Sept. 9

A grand swimming gala promising much excitement and keen competition between the three services will be held at the Crystal Gardens Thursday, Sept. 9, under the auspices of the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club. There will be freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke and relay races, diving exhibitions and water polo.

The three services have reported they will enter their best teams for the relay races and polo games.

A trophy will be presented to the swimmer receiving the most points, which will be held for one year.

Tickets can be obtained from Miss Myrtle Tupman, Spencer's music department, or the Crystal Gardens.

The gala promises to be one of the most successful this season. Expert swimmers are taking part and followers of the sport will see some fine exhibitions.

It is reported that Japanese soldiers are issued biscuits made of wheat flour and seaweed, with vitamins added.

Montreal Holds Sports Clinic

Teach Fundamentals

By CHARLIE EDWARDS
TORONTO (CP) — Maybe it seems strange that Montreal, Canada's largest city, has won so few major sport championships. For example Montreal has won the Allan Cup just once and has never won the Canadian junior hockey title. Montreal has taken the Dominion senior rugby title just twice in its 44 years of competition.

Now, suddenly, we have the answer. Harold Atkins of the Montreal Star writes: "Of people here who compete in athletics, in some form or other, only about one-tenth is believed to know the fundamentals of the game they give time to."

Anyway Montreal is going to do something about it. The Young Men's Hebrew Association has formed a free sports clinic where fundamentals of many sports will be outlined. Doug Kerr, McGill University coach, will start off the clinic this week with a class on how to handle a football and how to kick. Motion pictures will show prominent grid stars in action.

The clinic will meet every Wednesday until Dec. 15 with talks on many sports from skiing to water polo.

H.M.C.S. Givenchy Holds Sports Meet

Officers and men of H.M.C.S. Givenchy, with their wives and children, gathered at Macdonald Park, Saturday, for their first annual sports-day picnic. Several hundred participants and spectators enjoyed the meet.

While challenge cups had been presented by the officers' and petty officers' mess, the real object was to enjoy rather than win the events. Most of the contestants waived all rules of training by partaking of hot dogs and pop before going on to the field. The prevailing attitude was, "These are the last hot dogs we'll get with buns, for the duration—we'll eat 'em even if it does mean losing a second or two on the track."

Unfortunately two scheduled events, H.M.C.S. Naden chair act and the exhibition wrestling, were cancelled. The other novelty events were thoroughly appreciated.

The children took a big part in the program, but the sailors' wives were slow to come on to the track.

All refreshments, with the exception of the pop were "on the house" and tea, coffee, hot dogs and biscuits were served picnic style by men and women of the Y.M.C.A. War Services.

Grand aggregate trophy was captured by H.M.C.S. Naden II, with the individual aggregate going to Lieut. G. K. Cowan. Officers team won the relay race while the chief and petty officers captured the tug-of-war.

Prizes were presented by Capt. Massey Goulden, D.S.O. Navy band was in attendance.

They'll Do It Every Time

Football fever has taken hold in Halifax so firmly they're even talking of a bid for national honors. Tiny Herman, former Ottawa Roughriders star now in the navy, will coach the line for the Halifax navy team. When Winnipeg R.C.A.F. Bombers started practice last week they had 18 men with previous grid experience. A couple of former National Hockey League players, Paul Platz of Chicago and Alf Pike of New York Rangers, attended the drill in hopes of catching berths. Pike had never played football before. The former Winnipeg Bomber star, Lieut. Art Stevenson, is assisting Dave Prague in coaching Ottawa Combines but it's doubtful he'll play because of his bad knee.

Harold (Shrimp) McDougall, former Peterborough, Ont., athlete, who died last week in Toronto, played centre for Owen Sound Greys when they won the Dominion Junior hockey title in 1942. He was played professional hockey with Toronto Millionaires. Toronto Argonauts football club was the revenue producer for the Argonauts Rowing Club. With the Argo football club disbanded for the duration, it appears the Rowers will have to close shop too.

Navy Rally to Tie V.M.D.

Victoria Machinery Depot and Navy meet up at the Athletic Park tonight in the third game of the city baseball championship playoffs with the series still standing at one victory for the shipyarders. Starting time is 6.

Saturday night the bluejackets put on a spine-tingling rally in the ninth inning to drive across five runs and windup in a 7 to 7 tie with the shipbuilders. It was a great climax for the 2,500 fans who had conceded the V.M.D. their second straight victory up until that fatal ninth.

Featured by some great extra-base clouting by their slugging shortstop, Len Lowe, V.M.D. built up a 7 to 2 margin going into the ninth. Lowe smacked a home run in the third with one man on, and in the fourth cracked a triple to drive in two more counts. V.M.D. got four runs in the third and three in the fourth. The Navy came through with one run in the second and one in the fifth.

Then came the payoff in the first of the ninth. V.M.D. got two men away and to all intents and purposes the game was over. But the sailors suddenly started to hit the offerings of Cy Shillito. With two men on the bags, shortstop Lowe threw wild to first base for what would have been the third out and two runs scored. Navy continued to pound out base knocks and the first thing the fans knew the score was 7 to 6.

COSTLY RUN
Then came the heart-breaking error as far as the V.M.D. was concerned. Third sacker Thompson of the Navy caught an outside pitch and rolled it towards first base for what looked a cinch out. First sacker Babe Work settled himself to take the twisting roller but allowed it to slip between his legs and before he could recover himself, Thompson was resting on the bag. Bruce, the next batter, singled sharply through shortstop and the tying run came across the plate. Walker filed out to Restall in centre field for the third out.

In the last of the ninth V.M.D. managed to get a runner as far as first base, but pitcher Jimmy Dumeah struck out pinch-hitter

Askmenow Scores Surprise Victory In American Derby

Chicago (AP)—Askmenow, a game little brown filly owned by Hal Price Headley, Lexington, Ky., won the $74,700 American Derby at Washington Park Saturday, conquering Bold Captain by a head, with a photo deciding the victory.

Ridden by another mile, George Woolf of Taber, Alta., rated as the best jockey of the year, Askmenow ran a thrilling head-to-head duel with Bold Captain all through the stretch. They were racing all by themselves, 12 lengths ahead of the third horse, Famous Victory, entry of the Greentree Stables.

Askmenow became the fourth filly to win the derby in its 33-year history. She ran the mile and a quarter in 2:07, carrying 115 pounds. As the result of her triumph she became the established queen of the western milles and mares and picked up $16,150. The victory brought her total earnings as a three-year-old to $98,625.

Going to the post at odds of better than 2 to 1, Askmenow returned $8.60, $4.20 and $3.40 across the board. Bold Captain, owned by the turf firm of Devereux and Farrell, paid $5.40 to place and $4 to show, with Famous Victory paying $4.80 to show.

The competition attracted about 70 competitors and the run of fish was good with large specimens being weighed in to capture the awards.

Second prize, an Indian sweater, went to F. Thoms with a 22½-pound salmon. Other prizes were awarded as follows: Third, J. Durraht, 20 pounds, landing net; fourth, G. Lamont, 19½ pounds, assorted spoons; fifth, W. A. Pierson, 15½ pounds, tackle box; sixth, R. Warnock, 14½ pounds, assorted plugs; seventh, R. W. Taylor, 14 pounds, plainer; eighth, George Lane and Mr. Bach tied with fish weighing 12½ pounds and were each awarded a fish knife.

Prizes were presented to the winners at McKenzie Bay by Chuck Kinloch, while Hubert Lethaby, president of the association, presented bronze and silver buttons to successful anglers during the present season.

Prize winners who have not received their awards may pick them up at Wilson and Lenfesty, Government Street.

Army Cabinet Expected to Rule Bulgaria

By FRANK J. O'BRIEN

ISTANBUL (AP) — Bulgaria, unsettled by the death of King Boris, presented a potential problem to Hitler today as Premier Bogdan Philov strove to reconcile conflicting elements which make his position none too secure.

The five-member regency which, according to German broadcasts, will rule in behalf of the boy, King Simeon II, apparently is dominated by a pro-British church leader—the Metropolitan of Sofia, Stefan, who has protested against Gestapo activity in Bulgaria and against anti-Semitic laws passed during the last two years.

Queen mother Ioanna, second member of the regency, also is regarded as decidedly anti-German. Prince Kryil, brother of the late king, and Philov are pro-German, but far from strong, while the fifth regent is a politically unknown supreme court judge.

It seems highly unlikely this regency will be able to prevent the orphaned Philov government from collapsing and being replaced by a military cabinet.

GENERAL AS PREMIER

In that event the leader of the government probably would be selected from the military hierarchy, which is enthusiastically pro-German. Such a government doubtless would be pliant to German desires, and might break off relations with Russia and agree to assume the chief burden of the defence of Greece or even participate in the Russian war.

The possibility of a popular uprising which would overthrow the monarchy and establish a republic or socialist government under the sway of Russia—on whom the Bulgarians have traditionally looked as a friend—was not entirely discounted here.

However, such a revolt was considered possible only if the Germans are unable to send sufficiently strong forces into Bulgaria or to the borders to keep the situation in hand.

Accidental Death

Verdict of accidental death resulting from the effect of injuries received when he was struck by a B.C. Electric Railway Co. streetcar on Esquimalt Road, near Signal Hill, shortly after midnight Aug. 26, was returned by a coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of James Alexander, 82, at Sands Mortuary today.

The elderly man, who had been missing from the Saanich Health Centre since Tuesday, died four hours after the accident in Royal Jubilee Hospital. Dr. M. Calvert, house surgeon at the hospital testified at the inquest.

George McKie, a naval rating stationed at Esquimalt, told the jury he saw Alexander on the streetcar track, and told him the streetcar was coming.

"It was so dark I couldn't even see what he was doing, but I felt that he had heard me, and I walked on. Then I heard the car coming, and a crash.

There is a good sidewalk running parallel to the streetcar tracks and a person would not ordinarily walk on the track at all, Police Constable David Bain of Esquimalt told the jury.

Victory Garden Winners

All summer long residents of the neat little homes in the James Bay division of Wartime Housing Limited have been working long and hard in their Victory Gardens. After eight hours in the shipyard men and women have rushed home to hoe their vegetables and water them; housewives in recent weeks have been busy canning and bottling.

A garden competition has been held and much good-natured rivalry created.

Friday evening, at a meeting in the community club house at the corner of Dallas and Pilot winners of the competition will be announced and the prizes presented. Plans for an active winter will also be made. The Community Club of James Bay Wartime Housing plans monthly meetings during the winter months.

Tied Race, Upset Yachting Feature

A tie between Mintaka and Nomana in a keenly-contested international star race and the capsizing of the dinghy Pancho off Patterson Point in a sudden squall featured Sunday's R.V. Y.C. sailing program.

Mintaka, sailed by Barrett, and Nomana, by Wells, each negotiated the course in 55 minutes, starting at 10.35 and finishing at 11.30. It was the first time a tied race had been recorded in the club's seasonal schedule.

Pancho, sailed by "Buster" Walker, who recently purchased the dinghy, upset off Patterson in squally southwesterly wind, was disqualified. Nick Blandy, sailing the Falcon, stood by until A. Packford in the Aquila came along and took Pancho in tow. This put the Falcon, which finished last in the dinghy series.

Finishes were as follows: Stars, starting at 10.35, Ripples, Walter Walsh, 11.28.00; Mintaka, Barrett, 11.30.00; Nomana, Wells, 11.30.00; Boykin, Bob Nickells, 11.38.20.

Dinghies, starting at 11.25 — Kismet, John Jukes, 12.00.45; Penguin, J. Ellison, 12.01.10; Falcon, Nick Blandy, 12.10.00. Pancho failed to finish.

Course was from club dolphin to Patterson Pt., Flower Island and beach mark, twice around.

Wind was light southwesterly at first, increasing in velocity.

R. V. James was officer of the day, starter and timekeeper.

Over the Labor Day week-end, Sept. 4, 5 and 6, Rear-Commander Nickells cruise and picnic to Saanichton Spit will be held.

7 Extra Days Racing City Horsemen Seek

Extension of the racing season for seven days after the official close of the fall meeting here is sought by Victoria horsemen in a petition forwarded to the City Council today.

The petition is signed by 16 individuals.

Should the extension be granted, the preamble states, the Vancouver Thoroughbred Association has agreed to donate the gate receipts for four days of the proposed seven days racing. The money, the letter adds, would be turned over to the mayor and council for war charities.

Watering Ban Continues

Lifting of domestic watering bans in Greater Victoria appeared today to await study by city authorities of pressure needs throughout the area.

Instituted when the use of sprinklers and ordinary garden hoses might have disrupted pressure, the regulations will remain in force until further notice.

Oak Bay authorities indicated they would follow the city's lead, as did Saanich.

Skelton Stars
In Capitol Film

It's manna from muscians; it's fun galore at the Capitol Theatre, where Red Skelton, Lucille Ball, Gene Kelly, Virginia O'Brien, Rags Ragland, Zero Mostel and Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra are now current in M-G-M's three-tone Technicolor fun fiesta, "Du Barry Was a Lady."

Based on the Broadway smash hit, this musical comedy is all you could ask in the way of lively and colorful entertainment. It has Red Skelton as a check room attendant in a famous night club, desperately in love with Lucille Ball, the star singer there. Gene Kelly, another entertainer, also is in love with the copper-haired song-bird, but she prefers to marry for money rather than love. Along comes news that Skelton has won a sweepstakes, which means the lady of his choice will now marry him.

Nevil Shute Novel
On Screen at Rio

Three of the children who play in 20th Century-Fox's "The Pied Piper," now at the Rio Theatre, will remain anonymous. Because they have relatives in the occupied countries, the studio decided to leave their names off the list of credits.

The principals, however, are in no danger of retaliation. Monty Woolley and Anne Baxter are Americans, while Roddy McDowall is English.

Dennis Morgan Sings

This is a story to end all stories about Dennis Morgan, Mary Garden's operatic protege, not singing in pictures.

This is official. Mr. Morgan sings in Warner Bros.' "The Hard Way," now at the Cadet Theatre. He sings "Good Night, My Darling."

Zack Wheat Ready
To Work As Bat Boy

By HUGH FULLERTON
NEW YORK (AP) — Zack Wheat, the old Brooklyn Dodger outfielder, is a safety engineer at the Sunflower Ordnance Works in Kansas. With a son in the army in Hawaii, Zack explains: "If I'm too old to play I'd rather be a bat boy than sit in the stands."

Did anybody notice that the Philadelphia Athletics began their celebrated 20-game losing streak the day Jimmy Rippe joined the club, and that it was Jimmy whose hit finally busted the string?

E. T. Bales, Chattanooga (Tenn.) News-Free Press: "Bill Cox, president of the Phillies, complained that Bucky Harris was never available for comment, except between the hours of 3 and 5 in the afternoon, but Cox has since learned differently. Harris is available at all hours now. If the subject is Bill Cox."

That wasn't a blitz that struck Cairo recently—just a reunion between two former New York city sports writers — Jim Buchard of the World Telegram and the United States army and Tom O'Reilly of PM and the United States maritime service.

Huge Set Used
In York Feature

The largest set ever constructed at 20th Century-Fox— even exceeding in size and cost the Welsh village built for "How Green Was My Valley"—was the replica of early West Point, constructed for "Ten Gentlemen From West Point," at Sherwood Forest in California.

"Ten Gentlemen From West Point," now being shown at the York Theatre, stars George Montgomery, Maureen O'Hara and John Sutton, with Laird Cregar, John Sheppard and Victor Freeman cast in important supporting roles.

Tarzan Film Now
At Atlas Theatre

Edgar Rice Burroughs' famous jungle hero, Tarzan, combats German parachute troops in the wilds of Africa for the exciting plot for Sol Lesser's new production, "Tarzan Triumphs," now at the Atlas Theatre.

Roused from a policy of isolationism, Tarzan, in the person of star Johnny Weissmuller, gives his battle cry when he discovers that the war is hitting close to home. The Nazis molest his young son, and it is then that the jungle man discovers that he has encountered an enemy much more dangerous than the prowling animals that he meets in daily living in the African wilds.

'City Without Men'
At Oak Bay, Plaza

A preview of what a normal sound stage might look like after turn of the year, with male talent bowing out for the armed forces, recently was in evidence at Columbia.

Eight of the nine featured women in the cast of "City Without Men," now being shown at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres, were subject to call: Linda Darnell, Glenda Farrell, Doris Dudley, Margaret Hamilton, Leslie Brooks, Rosemary De Camp, Constance Worth and Sara Allgood. Each had her standing, then there was the script girl, five hairdressers and four wardrobe women.

DOMINION THEATRE

Glorifying the movies' biggest booster, the 'teen-age film fan, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has produced "The Youngest Profession," a story of the adventures of high school autograph seekers, currently at the Dominion Theatre. The star-studded cast includes Virginia Weidler, Edward Arnold, Ann Ayars, Marta Linden, John Carroll and Dick Simmons. Among the screen personalities who appear as themselves in the film, are guest stars Lana Turner, William Powell, Greer Garson, Robert Taylor and Walter Pidgeon.

No Rise in Dry Sentiment in U.S. Since War Opened

PRINCETON, N.J.—Unlike the last war when "many soldiers were bitter in their accusations of the 'drys,' claiming they put national prohibition into effect when young men were out of the country, no increase in sentiment for a nation-wide anti-liquor law has been found in the United States.

In fact, a national dry law is supported by fewer voters today than when the war began. Only approximately one-third of the nation's voters with opinions on the subject favor a return to nation-wide prohibition, while the other two-thirds are content to leave matters as they are now.

The country's attitude today, together with the trend since Pearl Harbor, is shown in the following survey results.

"If the question of national prohibition should come up again, would you vote wet or dry?"

A total of only 8 per cent had no opinion in today's survey. The decrease in dry sentiment is especially significant in view of the fact that today's survey does not embrace the views of the men serving in the armed forces.

Although at least 34 of the 43 states have local prohibition laws affecting some part of the population, what the general public opposes is a national dry law similar to the Eighteenth Amendment.

MEN VS. WOMEN

If a new national law is ever adopted, the women of the country are likely to have more to do with reviving it than the men. All through the years since repeal, the women have been far more in favor of returning to national prohibition than the men.

In the survey a year ago, for example, only 54 per cent of women voted wet, as compared to 70 per cent of the men. The vote by sexes today is as follows:

	Dry	Wet
Men	27%	73%
Women	41%	59%

Following repeal, the Gallup Poll conducted periodic tests of national sentiment at intervals of approximately a year. The highest dry vote recorded in these periodic surveys was in the September, 1942, poll when the percentage in favor of returning to national prohibition reached 38 per cent.

CANADIAN OPINION

Results of a nation-wide survey conducted by the Canadian Gallup Poll earlier this spring showed that the driest area in Canada was the maritimes. The question asked of Canadians was:

"Would you favor or oppose a law to prohibit the sale of all alcoholic beverages (including wine and beer) in Canada?"

Based on those with opinions, the "dry" figure for Canada as a whole was 25 per cent, with sentiment in the maritime provinces at 37 per cent.

In the table below, it will be seen that women in Canada are more in favor of a national prohibition law than are men:

	Dry	Wet
Men	18%	82%
Women	27%	73%

Some Pumice Stone Will Float on Water

One of the many "plain facts" in this world is that wood will float on water. Another such fact is that a stone will sink when it is dropped on water.

Both those things are quite true for most kinds of wood and stone. Yet the rule does not hold in every case. There is wood which will sink in water, and there is stone which will float!

Many kinds of ironwood trees grow on this continent and elsewhere, and all of them produce hard, heavy wood. The wood of some kinds is so heavy that it will sink when dropped in water.

On the other hand we can find a kind of stone which will float. It is known as "pumice," or "pumice stone," and it comes from volcanoes.

Mass of pumice near active volcano of present day.

Lava which flows out of a volcano is likely to have a great deal of gas in it. This gas may have enough pressure to expand inside the lava before it cools. In that way much pumice stone is made. It also may be thrown out in the form of loose cinders during an eruption of a volcano.

Time and again people have watched pumice floating about the surface of the ocean. Volcanoes have thrown up pumice ashes, and the ashes have dropped on the sea.

The most famous case dates back to 1883. In that year the Krakatoa volcano sent thousands of tons of ashes into the air, and the ashes were made up largely of pumice.

The pumice made a thick bed on the surface of the Strait of Sunda, between Java and Sumatra. The bed was reported to be from one to 16 feet thick. One section of it, 19 miles long and two-thirds of a mile wide, made up a kind of "blockade" against a small seaport town.

Certain sailing vessels were held offshore by the pumice. We are told that some of the sailors stepped on the pumice bed and walked two miles before safely reaching the island coast!

The common color of pumice is grey, but it also may be yellow, brown, black or snow white. It is light enough to float because of the hundreds of small gas pockets inside it.

A great deal of this glassy stone is used for polishing wood, ivory, marble, and so on. When ground to powder and mixed with soap, it makes a good metal polish.

After floating for a month or two, pumice stone becomes "water-logged," and when that happens it will sink. Very old pumice stone, which has suffered pressure while on the ground, also will sink in water.

WEEKLY WARTIME NUTRITION HINTS

Meat en Brochettes

Many intriguing combinations exist of meats and vegetables on skewers

Have you tried cooking 1-inch cubes of lamb shoulder this way? Push the pieces of lamb on to wood or metal skewers till skewer is filled—season—brush with melted fat. Broil or pan-broil under a hot broiler or on a hot pan for 10 minutes; turn and cook for 5 minutes more. Serve on a bed of rice with barbecue sauce. That is the standard "en brochette" procedure. But the same cooking method can be used both to introduce the nutritionally-so-desirable variety meats into the diet—try slices of parboiled beef kidney or liver between the cubes of lamb—and to give interest to meat leftovers. Almost any previously cooked meat can be used to "extend" fresh meat on skewers. Or, in fact, can be used alone with suitable vegetables... mushrooms, parboiled tender young carrots, small, firm tomatoes, pieces of peppers, or with variety meats as suggested above. This is another dodge—so useful in wartime—for dressing up quite ordinary materials to give a festive feeling.

PAN BROILING

Lightly grease a heavy pan. Heat well. Cook chops, steaks, veal fillets, brochettes this way, turning when well browned on the side in contact with the pan.

MR. AND MRS.

Dorothy Dix:

Dear Miss Dix: A married man 25 years old, has fallen in love with me. We both work in a defence plant. He has two children, a boy 3½ years old and a girl not quite one. His wife must be splendid as she worked to help buy him a car. She takes fine care of the children and he loves them and cares for her, too, but runs after me. He takes me out in his car and gives me a nice time. But there are his wife and his children.

I would give him up, only reluctantly. Would a single girl find happiness with a married man who leaves a family behind?

HEAVY PRICE ATTACHED TO IMMORALITY

Answer: Not unless she has a heart as hard as a rock. For if she had a particle of conscience she would always be bound to remember the forsaken wife and the little fatherless children. It is modern to think that all the old moral laws have gone into the discard, and that sinners no longer have to pay the price of their wrongdoing.

But this is not true. What we sow, we have to reap. The fool

ABOUT

JONES-MANVILLE

'30 Years Plus' Is Conservative

From time to time your J-M Reporter has pointed out that Jones-Manville asbestos shingles are built to last "30 years plus." From reports received from satisfied users, this statement appears conservative. For example, one homeowner writes as follows: "Years ago, a friend and I had to reroof our buildings. After considerable parley we decided to use Jones-Manville asbestos shingles. They have now been on my roof about 35 years, and they are still in good shape. I'd judge they're good for 40 years more." On the basis of such performance records, Jones-Manville feels justified in claiming for J-M Durabestos Shingles a life of 30 years plus. You'll always be glad you chose J-M Durabestos Shingles—they're fireproof and add colorful beauty to your home. If you have a roofing problem, see your J-M Dealer now. V.L. OTTAWA (CP)—Headquarters of the Air Cadet League of Canada have announced that national officers of the league and R.C.A.F. headquarters officers associated with the air cadet movement are attending annual provincial meetings of the league being held in western Canada.

They are: Dr. R. MacLaren, Winnipeg, president; Arthur L. Melling, Montreal, vice-president, and executive chairman; Wing Cmdr. H. N. Nelson, R.C.A.F., assistant director of training in charge of air cadet administration; Pte. L. H. C. Anderson, R.C.A.F., public relations officer for the Air Cadet League.

Dates of the western provincial meetings are: Manitoba, Winnipeg, Sept. 1; Saskatchewan, Regina, Sept. 3; Alberta, Calgary, Sept. 7; British Columbia, Vancouver, Sept. 9. Committee meetings for the eastern provinces will be held later in the year.

Air Corps Needs

Each fighting pilot must have the support of 15 to 25 men on the ground, and each pursuit or bombing airplane requires the services of more than a score of ground vehicles. To handle the job, the U.S. Army Air Corps has 25 varieties of specially developed motor transport equipment.

More Doctors Here Urged By Labor

Aid of the B.C. College of Physicians and Surgeons is sought by the Vancouver Island Joint Labor Conference in a move to alleviate the shortage of doctors in civilian practice here in a motion carried by the conference at its meeting Sunday evening.

The labor group acted following reception of a report to the effect a patent, in grave need of medical attention, had lain in a local hospital without a visit from a doctor for several hours.

Doctors caring for civilian patients in this area, one delegate stated, are "worked to death."

As a means of relieving the shortage, the conference is approaching responsible authorities to see if medical men in the service can be secured to attend civilian cases when civilian doctors cannot be secured.

Following discussion of the group's efforts to secure general transfer privileges on city transit systems, the conference decided to ask A.M. W. L. Morgan to call a meeting of his transportation subcommittee dealing with that problem.

MUST WEAR HELMETS

In reply to protest from the group over a sign in local shipyards declining responsibility for head injuries for workmen not wearing helmets, the conference learned from the Workmen's Compensation Board that warning applied only to workmen who secure helmets free from employers for certain specified jobs.

The board further stated failure to wear helmets in those jobs might jeopardize employees' chances of securing compensation in case of accident.

Appreciation for the assistance and public spiritedness of certain local firms which have made financial grants to the self-help fuel program was voiced by C. W. Marshall, administrator. Mr. Marshall reported funds had been used to purchase drag-saws and carry on road work. He mentioned specifically the Sidney Roofing and Paper Co. Ltd., the British America Paint Company, Yarrows Ltd., the New Method Laundries and Manning Fuels Ltd.

Labor groups seeking pictures of industrial activity were instructed to contact E. B. Aberly, 1252 Denman, local representative of the National Film Board.

A. Douglas, newly-seated delegate of the International Woodworkers of America, reported his group was inaugurating a campaign to organize the industry locally and asked conference support. H. Allison, delegate of the local division, Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and other transport workers, said his group was making satisfactory progress.

THE CUP THAT CHEERS

What could be a more appropriate bearer of good news than the good old family teapot. Nearly everyone drinks Tea and now we are going to get much more of our favourite "SALADA". The Ration Board says Canada's tea supply has so much improved that commencing September 2nd, we may turn in two coupons every three weeks instead of every four.

To save gasoline, avoid heavily-traveled streets, stop and go streets and congested areas—congestion causes delay and delay wastes gasoline.

Many auto generators must be stepped up because the 35-mile-per-hour speed limit is not sufficient speed to keep the generators building up a charge in the batteries.

Laborless Labor Day

Now about a laborless Labor Day for you, the Homemaker? Truly you deserve relaxation along with the rest of the family! And it can be done, you know.

To make sure the day will be free from cooking, plan your menus for the entire week end so that practically all the meals can be cooked Saturday. Holiday meals needn't follow the regular schedule. With breakfast later in the morning and heartier, too, and a substantial dinner in the evening, lunch can be merely a snack or left out entirely. Of course dinner should be plentiful enough to take care of robust appetites, so we recommend the following:

LABORLESS COOKING
Cooked-onion cooking—The best of both worlds can be prepared ahead of time so that most of the work is done. Just reheat the beans for an hour before serving time. The beans can be cooked for Saturday with enough left over to spice and reheat for Monday. The shortcake and applesauce can easily be prepared earlier and waited at the last moment.

Baked beans can be different—Practically everyone has her special way of baking beans. My favorite method is to put an onion in the bottom of the bean pot, then heap the beans, add sweetening, seasonings and enough bean liquor for moisture, and bake. The onion flavor permeates each and every bean in a most delicious manner.

JUST DESIRABLES—If you want to finish dinner off in a triumphant manner, then look to Julia Lee Wright's article in this week's Family Circle Magazine. It's all about sugar and shortening saving desserts.
